

KINGSLAYER

SERIES READING PLAN

Prepare your heart to hear the Word of God each week with this reading plan

Series Theme

The greatest threats don't always come from the outside—they often rise from within. Just as agencies like the FBI and the CIA stay vigilant against hidden dangers, we're called to be alert to the spiritual threats in our own lives. What we're up against isn't always visible. The enemy works with subtle, strategic, and often deadly precision. Over the next three weeks, we'll step into the lives of three biblical kings who weren't defeated by outside forces, but from the inside out. Quiet "assassins" slipped past their defenses and led to their downfall. Join us as we uncover these hidden threats—and learn how to guard our hearts against these kingslayers.
