Series Theme

In a culture shaped by Christian influencers, televangelists, and social media-savvy churches, it's easy to assume we already know who Jesus is. But what if our picture is incomplete at best—or distorted at worst? In this series, we return to Jesus' own words in Matthew 5-7, the Sermon on the Mount to rediscover His way. Often reduced to a list of moral ideals, this sermon is actually something far deeper: Jesus revealing that He alone can transform the heart. He not only calls us to a new way of living—He empowers it, inviting us to live as citizens of a kingdom He has already secured for us and welcomed us into by His grace.
